Lawson Ford Beats Brass Monkey 15-5

Lawson Ford exploded for nine runs in the last two innings to break open a 6-5 game and beat the Brass Monkey 15-5 last week in a Class "A" league softball game in Lynchburg. It gave Lawson Ford a 1-0 record for the second half as it got under way.

T. C. Jennings hit two three run homers, one in each of the last two innings, to drive in six runs to pace Lawson Ford to its win. Charles Jamerson led the hitters with four hits in four trips to the plate. Ray Tweedy, Mike Mallow, Earl Martin, Jennings and Eddie Gunter each had two hits apiece in the 19 hit attack that saw everybody get at least one hit.

Lawson Ford got off to a 3-0 lead at the end of two innings and led on 6-5 at the end of five innings before they got six in the sixth and three in the seventh, both innings sparked by Jennings' home runs.

Lawson Ford Nips Chestnut Hill 10-9

Lawson Ford scored 10 runs in the first four innings and then had to fight for it as they stopped a seventh inning rally to get a 10-9 win over Chestnut Hill in a Class "A" league softball game in Lynchburg last week. Lawson Ford now had a 2-0 mark in the second half.

Lawson's led 10-3 after four innings off play and 10-4 at the end of six, but in the seventh two home runs along with five other hits saw Chestnut Hill explode for five runs in that last inning. They had runners on first and third when the last out was made.

Mike Mallow and Donnie Clements led the attack for Lawson's with three hits each. Clements drove in four runs. Buddy Wilcox, Pete Lampman and Earl Martin each had two hits apiece. Wilcox Martin and Doug Mitchell each drove in two runs apiece.

Billy Guthrie

Ready for All-Star Game Tonight

Billy Guthrie, a 1973 graduate of Appomattox County High School, after about ten days of practice, will be ready to show Carolina coaches and football fans his grid abilities tonight, Thursday, in the second annual Virginia High School all-star football game at Victory Stadium in Roanoke at 8:30 p.m. Billy is one of twelve Virginians recruited by North Carolina head football coach Bill Dooley.

Although Virginia and Virginia Tech signed a record number of state gridders, Carolina got a good lineman in this 6-foot-4, 225-pounder.

An all-Seminole District selection in 1971 and 1972, Guthrie will play tonight for the East squad in the contest. Picked the Most Valuable Player in the district last fall, Guthrie seems to like defense better than offense.

"Bill likes to play defensive middle guard better than offensive tackle," said coach Jerry Robinson, Guthrie's mentor at Appomattox County High School. "He's an aggressive player who has good lateral movement."

Guthrie will play against two E. C. Glass graduates, West all-stars Otey Meriwether and Stuart Patterson, both of whom are headed to Virginia Tech.

"Bill's just happy to play," continued Robinson. "He's tickled to have been selected. He likes to play the game. The Carolina people will be looking at him, seeing how well he does on offense and on defense. I don't believe he's reached his potential yet, although he's a good football player."

U.N.C. has signed 40 prospects, 26 of whom are linemen. Most of the Virginia boys it signed are top players from the Tidewater area who will be present for the all-star game.

Guthrie will have a good shot at Carolina, as four offensive and three defensive linemen all starters have graduated. UNC will be hard pressed to duplicate their 1972 mark of 11-1, but with Guthrie, who is considered an excellent prospect because of his size and quickness, and other outstanding recruits, Carolina will again be a top power in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

A large crowd of local boosters are planning to travel to Roanoke tonight to watch this game.

Initial Treatment

Doctor -- Your nerves are weak. You must take a vacation.

Patient--Then please tell my nerves strong enough to ask the bills for me.

Huh?

Hubby: "It's funny how the biggest idiots always marry the prettiest girls."

Wife: "Oh now you're trying to flatter me."
